The work load for dissertation shall be six hours per week per class.
(xviii) For dissertation work the placement of every candidate under a supervisor shall be decided within one month from the last date of admission.
(xix) The dissertation will be divided into two parts. Part I of Semester I will constitute preparation of plan of work that should be presented by the student in front of the faculty of the department, who will assess the feasibility and recommend suggestions, if any, for the improvement. The student must suitably incorporate the changes, if any, in the synopsis in consultation with the supervisor. Following this he/she must write and submit type written draft of chapters on review of literature and methodology to the supervisor. He/she may also conduct some preliminary work/experiments to understand the techniques. The supervisor shall submit a report of satisfactory progress to the Head of the Department before beginning of the theory examination. The latter shall forward it to the university along with marks for internal assessment. The dissertation shall be of 100 marks to be evaluated out of 70 marks by an external examiner. The marks obtained, shall be added to the marks obtained in the viva voce examination to be held subsequently.
(xx) In the second part of dissertation in Semester II, the student will have to

- complete the work as per the aims and objectives of the study and submit a dissertation. Prior to final submission of the dissertation, the student shall make a pre- M. Phil. presentation in the department in the presence of all the faculty chaired by the Head of the Department . Suggestions, if any, may be suitably incorporated into the dissertation.
- (xxi) The candidate must give a certificate that (1) the dissertation incorporates his/her own work, (2) the work incorporated in the dissertation is not a repetition of earlier work, (3) any part of the dissertation containing information from other sources has been properly cited or has been printed after having obtained due permission from the original author, and (4) any kind of assistance or help taken during the course of work has been properly acknowledged. This certificate must be attached immediately after the title page of the dissertation. Supervisor shall give a certificate according to the prescribed format ((Annexure-I)
- (xxii) The dissertation must be hard bound and type written dissertation on A-4 size paper. Four hard copies and four soft copies in non-editable PDF format must be submitted to the Head of the Department through the Supervisor. The colour of the cover page of dissertation shall be faculty wise (Annexure-II).
- (xxiii) On receipt of satisfactory evaluation report of dissertation, i.e., minimum 50% marks M. Phil. students shall undergo a viva voce examination of 30 marks which shall also be openly defended. There will be an examination committee comprising one external examiner and one internal examiner; the later may be the supervisor of the candidate or the Head of the Department in the absence of the supervisor.
- (xxiv) Every student shall be required to undertake a compulsory internship of 2-3 weeks in between the two semesters. The internship schedule shall be decided by the concerning Head of the Department. The teaching institution may decide for the provision of stipend for the students taking internship. The students will be required to submit and present a report of the internship. The participating organization/institution will give the performance appraisal of the student's work. The concerning supervisor of the Department shall certify the satisfactory performance of the students during internship and submit the same to the examination section through the Head of the Department of the university.
- (xxv) Every candidate shall be required to attend a minimum of 75% of the lectures, tutorials, seminars and practical (taken together) held in each paper.
